"Eslanda: The Large and Unconventional Life of Mrs. Paul Robeson"

A discussion with the author

Barbara Ransby

Professor of History, African-American Studies and Gender and Women Studies at the University of Illinois-Chicago

Commentary by Cathy Cohen

David and Mary Winton Green Professor of Political Science, University of Chicago

Thursday, January 16; 4:30—6PM

Center for the Study of Race, Politics & Culture

5733 S. University Avenue

Please join us for a book–signing and reception after the lecture.

Professor Ransby's lecture is the third in a 2013-2014 series, "Hard Times: Black Appeals Local and Global," presented by the Human Rights Program and the Center for the Study of Race, Politics and Culture. This project is inspired by An Appeal to the World, the 1947 petition to the United Nations Human Rights Commission by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, coordinated by W.E.B. Du Bois. Our next presentation for this series will be by Bernardine Dohrn, Emeritus Professor of Law at Northwestern University, on February 20, 2014. Please visit humanrights.uchicago.edu for more information.

Presented by the University of Chicago Human Rights Program and the Center for the Study of Race, Politics & Culture

HR
HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAM
The University of Chicago
Humanrights.uchicago.edu

center for the study of race, politics, and culture
CSRPC
at the university of chicago

This event is free and open to the public. For more information please contact Yaniv Kleinman at 773-702-1114 or ykleinman@uchicago.edu
Persons with disabilities who feel they may need assistance should contact Yaniv Kleinman for assistance